

OFFER

Methodology consulting: from 70€/hour*

Expert consultations on techniques and tools planned in the client's project.

Project workshop: from 150€/meeting

Thorough case study in the form of a workshop with key members of the client's team, resulting in a vision and strategic direction of R&D path in client's project.

Research concept generation: from 250€

Creating a set of general points regarding main phases and aspects of a proposed research process (including potential results' implementation).

R&D project worksheets preparation and support in the funding application process: from 500€

Price depends on the funding programme client applies to, type of their project and time required for the materials' preparation.

Trend analysis: from 750€

Analysis of current practices in client's field. Final report presents technological trends in the client's business sector, as well as changes in other fields that could possibly be introduced in their line of business.

Potential analysis: from 1 500€

Analysis of the main issues of the client's project with regard to the legitimacy of its implementation.

SOTA analysis: from 5 000€

Analysis of the current technological state of the proposed solutions (state of the art analysis), including the identification of challenges with regard to the project.

R&D activities: from 3 500€

Price depends on: time required for the execution, availability and quality of data and databases, used methods and research techniques, as well as the scope of the final report.

Assessment and/or monitoring of the R&D project: 1-5% project's value

Analysis of the validity, feasibility and progress of the R&D activities in the project.

All-inclusive R&D project execution: from 150 000€

Price is individually negotiated with the client after a thorough analysis of the presented issue.

* – all prices are quoted nett